Super League Goes to The Wire

Galatasaray are a tick away from the title, after their win over the contender Sivasspor in the penultimate away game in Turkcell Super League, which was celebrated wildly in Didim. With the final whistle of the game, ecstatic Galatasaray fans flocked to Ataturk...

With the final whistle of the game, ecstatic Galatasaray fans flocked to Ataturk Boulevard and made their happiness felt throughout Didim.

The final tie of the closely contended race for the title of champions of the Turkcell Super League is to be played out on Saturday, May 10th. There are three points between the current leader Galatasaray and the current second placed team Fenerbahce. If Galatasaray win or draw in their home game against Genclerbirligi Oftas, an Ankara team, they will become champions, while if they lose and Fenerbahce win away against Trabzonspor, one of the big four, the final picture would be reversed.

Turkey is holding her breath in expectation of the deciding Saturday games.
