Beril is Didim's pride

ATATÜRK Elementary School prep-class student Beril Ata has won second prize at the International Painting Contest.

She won in the category of ages 6-9, held in Canada, for children with Thalassemia. This year's topic was entitled 'Iron Warriors';.

Beril received her award on Thursday (May 8) at a ceremony held in Ankara by the Ministry of Health. She had become the world champion in 2005 and won second prize in 2006 and 2007.

Beril's father Ýbrahim Ata said he and his wife were very proud of their daughter and were very happy for her joy in life and ambition. He said: 'Her determination keeps us going. I wish her joy of life and success sets an example for everyone.'
